

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.251 OF 2007

IN

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.593 OF 2005

Ashwini @ Soni Mukundlal Gill ...Applicant.

Versus

State of Maharashtra ...Respondent.

Mr.V.V.Purwant, Adv. for Applicant.
Ms.S.V.Gajre, APP, for State.

CORAM : SMT.V.K.TAHILRAMANI, J.

DATED : 8th March, 2007.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned Advocate for the Applicant-orig. accused No.1 and the learned APP for the State.

2. The applicant has been convicted under Section 307 of IPC and sentenced to suffer imprisonment for ten years. The applicant is now seeking bail.

3. The learned Advocate for the applicant states that the applicant was on bail pending trial and thereafter he was granted temporary bail by this Court for few months as he was suffering from heart ailment. He has not misused the liberty granted to him. The learned Advocate for the applicant further states that co-accused Kailas Joshi has been granted bail by this Court. He submitted that role of Kailas in the incident is same as that of the applicant. These statements are not controverted by the prosecution. The learned Advocate for the applicant has further pointed out that the applicant is suffering from heart disease.

4. Looking to all the above facts, I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant.

5. The applicant to be released on bail in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one or two sureties to make up the said amount. The applicant shall not enter within the jurisdiction of Malad Police Station. Before being released on bail the applicant shall inform the officer of Malad Police Station where he will reside during the period that he is on bail. The applicant shall report to the nearest police station to that address once in a week, till disposal of his appeal.

..(3)..

6. Application is disposed of accordingly.
